this series presents a comprehensive global and up to date history of english language prose fiction and written by a international team of scholars dust jacket questioning a literary history that since ian watt s rise of the novel has privileged the courtship plot kelly hager proposes an equally powerful but overlooked narrative focusing on the failed marriage hager maps the legal history of marriage and divorce providing crucial background as she reveals the prevalence of the failed marriage plot in eighteenth and nineteenth century british novels dickens s novels emerge as representative case studies in their preoccupations with the disintegration of marriage the far reaching and disastrous effects of the doctrine of coverture and the comic spectacular and monstrous possibilities afforded by the failed marriage plot setting his narratives alongside the writings of liberal reformers like John Stuart Mill and the seemingly conservative agendas of Caroline Norton, Eliza Lynn Linton and Sarah Stickney Ellis, Hager also offers a more contextualized account of the competing strands of the woman question in the course of her revisionist readings of Dickens's novels. Hager uncovers a Dickens who is neither the conservative agent of the patriarchy nor a novelistic Jeremy Bentham and reveals that tipping the marriage plot on its head forces us to adjust our understanding of the complexities of Victorian proto feminism.

He was born in a middle class family in a small town in India. Of the late fifties, his parents chose for him the direction that his life should take. Yet something was lacking. Was this the path that he was meant to walk? Did he want this? He fought his chosen destiny at every stage of his life. Would he be able to realise his true destiny?

A timely story of a forgotten emotion, cheerfulness, a literary and cultural history tells a new story about the cultural imagination of the West wherein cheerfulness, a momentary uptick in emotional energy, a temporary lightening of spirit functions as a crucial theme in literary, philosophical and artistic creations from early modern to contemporary times. In dazzling interpretations of Shakespeare and Montaigne, Hume, Austen and Emerson, Dickens, Nietzsche and Louis Armstrong, Hampton explores the philosophical construal of cheerfulness as a theme in Protestant theology, a focus of medical writing, a topic in Enlightenment psychology and a category of modern aesthetics. In a conclusion on cheerfulness in pandemic days, Hampton stresses the importance of lightness of mind under the pressure of catastrophe. A history of the emotional life of European and American cultures, a breathtaking exploration of the intersections of culture, literature and psychology, cheerfulness challenges the dominant narrative of Western aesthetics as a story of melancholy, mourning, tragedy and trauma. Hampton captures the many appearances of this fleeting and powerfully transformative emotion whose historical and literary trajectory has never before been systematically traced.
